

The background of the image is composed of numerous dark green, wavy, and somewhat chaotic lines that flow across the frame, creating a sense of movement and depth. These lines vary in thickness and direction, some curving sharply while others are more linear. In the center of the image, the word "VERTIGO" is prominently displayed in a bold, uppercase, sans-serif font. The letters have a textured, almost hand-drawn or etched appearance, with internal hatching or cross-hatching that gives them a three-dimensional quality. The word is centered both horizontally and vertically, serving as the focal point of the composition.
