

The image features a background of dark green, wavy, hand-drawn lines that create a sense of movement and depth. The lines are of varying thickness and flow across the frame, some curving and looping. In the center, the word "VERTIGO" is written in a bold, textured, dark green font. The letters have a slightly irregular, brush-like appearance, with some internal shading and a rough edge, giving it a three-dimensional, tactile quality. The overall composition is abstract and evocative of the concept of vertigo.

The background features a series of fluid, organic lines in two colors: a dark, muted green and a light, warm beige. These lines meander across the white space, creating a sense of movement and depth. The green lines are more prominent and define larger, looser shapes, while the beige lines are more delicate and often follow the contours of the green shapes, creating a layered effect.
